

Barb Webber

Lee's Summit, MO
1-814-440-0479
bwebber@larsontexts.com

Barb is a National Consultant for Big Ideas Learning. She brings over 10 years of experience as a mathematics consultant and 6 of those years with Big Ideas Learning. She travels throughout the country to provide services to school districts such as Pilot Implementation Training and Follow-up, Implementation and Technology Training, Professional Development, Embedded Coaching and Advisement to District Personnel.

Barb holds a Master Degree in Education – Middle School Mathematics from the University of Central Missouri. Her experience includes 31 years of teaching middle level mathematics in the Lee's Summit, MO School District and 3 years as an Adjunct Professor for the University of Central Missouri teaching Math for Elementary Teachers.

Career Highlights

- Mentored 13 Student Teachers
- Member of District Math Committee
- Member of District Performance Based Teacher Evaluation Team
- Served as Building Site Based Team Facilitator 7 years
- Presentations for Kansas Council of Teachers of Mathematics 2016
- Presentation for Nevada Council of Teachers of Mathematics 2011
- Presentations for Michigan Council of Teachers of Mathematics 2017
- Presentations for American Middle Level Educators 2016
- Presentations for civic and education organizations

Associations & Awards

Teacher of the Year, Lee's Summit MO School District and Missouri Candidate

Recipient, District Reaching the Mark Award

Recipient, District Learning for Life Award

Recipient, Greater Kansas City Area Excellence in Education Award

Member, National Council for Teachers of Mathematics

Member, American Middle Level Educators

Member, Missouri State Teacher's Association and Missouri Retired Teachers Association