

Lou Montiel

Tucson, AZ

1-814-460-9125

lmontiel@larsontexts.com

Lou Montiel is the National Consultant Manager for Big Ideas Learning. In addition to working with a team of highly talented National Mathematics Consultants, Lou travels extensively throughout the United States, conducting workshops and giving professional presentations at national, state, regional, and local meetings.

Lou holds a Master of Education in Mathematics Education from Northern Arizona University. His experience includes twenty years of secondary mathematics teaching, two years as 6-12 Mathematics Coordinator at Lake Havasu Public Schools, and six years as Department Chair at Lake Havasu High School in Arizona.

Career Highlights

- Numerous presentations at national, state, and local organizations
- National Consultant of the Year for McDougal Littell, 2004
- Presentations for the Arizona Association for Teachers of Mathematics in Phoenix, Arizona, November, 2000
- Presentations for the National Council of Vocational Education in Las Vegas, Nevada, February, 1998
- Presentations at the Arizona Vocational Association in Tucson, Arizona, July, 1997
- Numerous presentations at local civic organizations

Associations and Awards

Teacher of the Year

Arizona Association for Teachers of Mathematics, 2001

Recipient

Lake Havasu City Chamber of Commerce Presidential Award for Excellence in Education, 2000

Recipient

Arizona School to Work Five Star Award, 1999

Recipient

Christa McCauliffe Fellowship, 1997

Member

National Council of Teachers of Mathematics

Member

Arizona Association for Teachers of Mathematics

Member

National Council for Supervisors of Mathematics